

Task:

Your task will be to design and market your "Utopian Society" so students and adults will want to move to your community. You will be working as a group on this project, and each individual has to pull their load. You will be presenting your projects to other students and community members. Good luck.